Unit 1

Immigration, Culture, and New Jersey (Intro Unit)

Summary and Rationale

This unit will emphasize the factors that have been most influential in determining the contemporary character of New Jersey. Students will explore immigration patterns and how immigrant groups created a diverse population with varying religions, language and cultures. After looking at statewide patterns the unit will focus on Nutley's development and culture. First students will consider varying groups who settled the area around Nutley before considering at current day Nutley demographics.

CCSS-ELA - Literacy in History/Social Sciences
CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.RH.11-12.1	Cite specific textual evidence to support analysis of primary and secondary sources, connecting insights gained from specific details to an understanding of the text as a whole.
CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.RH.11-12.2	Determine the central ideas or information of a primary or secondary source; provide an accurate summary that makes clear the relationships among the key details and ideas.
CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.RH.11-12.3	Evaluate various explanations for actions or events and determine which explanation best accords with textual evidence, acknowledging where the text leaves matters uncertain.
CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.RH.11-12.4	Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, including analyzing how an author uses and refines the meaning of a key term over the course of a text (e.g., how Madison defines faction in Federalist No. 10).
CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.RH.11-12.5	Analyze in detail how a complex primary source is structured, including how key sentences, paragraphs, and larger portions of the text contribute to the whole.
CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.RH.11-12.6	Evaluate authors' differing points of view on the same historical event or issue by assessing the authors' claims, reasoning, and evidence.
CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.RH.11-12.7	Integrate and evaluate multiple sources of information presented in diverse formats and media (e.g., visually, quantitatively, as well as in words) in order to address a question or solve a problem.
CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.RH.11-12.8	Evaluate an author's premises, claims, and evidence by corroborating or challenging them with other information.
CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.RH.11-12.9	Integrate information from diverse sources, both primary and secondary, into a coherent understanding of an idea or event, noting discrepancies among sources.
CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.RH.11-12.10	By the end of grade 12, read and comprehend history/social studies texts in the grades 11-CCR text complexity band independently and proficiently.
CCSS-ELA - Writing
CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.W.11-12.1.A	Introduce precise, knowledgeable claim(s), establish the significance of the claim(s), distinguish the claim(s) from alternate or opposing claims, and create an organization that logically sequences claim(s), counterclaims, reasons, and evidence.
CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.W.11-12.1.B	Develop claim(s) and counterclaims fairly and thoroughly, supplying the most relevant evidence for each while pointing out the strengths and limitations of both in a manner that anticipates the audience's knowledge level, concerns, values, and possible biases.

CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.W.11-12.1.C	Use words, phrases, and clauses as well as varied syntax to link the major sections of the text, create cohesion, and clarify the relationships between claim(s) and reasons, between reasons and evidence, and between claim(s) and counterclaims.
CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.W.11-12.1.D	Establish and maintain a formal style and objective tone while attending to the norms and conventions of the discipline in which they are writing.
CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.W.11-12.1.E	Provide a concluding statement or section that follows from and supports the argument presented.

Modifications

Teachers can choose from any of the suggested modifications that follow based upon teaching style, instructional method and needs of individual students.

General Modifications:

- Focus on building relationships in the classroom.
- Control the stressors for the student and manage alternate pathways for completion of assignments.

- Provide feedback utilizing a growth mindset and praise what is done correctly based upon effort, attitude and strategy.
- Boost engagement with material by providing opportunities of differentiation, group work and alternative assignments/assessments where appropriate.

ELL:

- Provide additional wait time for student responses to questions to allow students the ability to undergo the process of translation between languages, composition of response and attempted response.
- Simplification of sentence structure and repetition of questions/sentences exactly as stated before trying to rephrase to allow ELL students to hear the sentence and try to comprehend it.
- Rephrase idioms and teach their meanings as when learning a new language, translations are often very literal. IE

“Take a stab at it.” Ensure students understand what is meant.

- Use directed reading activities. Ensure preview of text before assigned/read, provide pre-reading questions about the main idea and offer help utilizing key words.
- Allow the use of Google Translate where appropriate.

Gifted and Talented

Utilize differentiation in the areas of acceleration, enrichment, and grouping. Examples include, but are not limited to:

- interdisciplinary and problem-based assignments with planned scope and sequence
- advance, accelerated, or compacted content
- abstract and advanced higher-level thinking
- allowance for individual student interests
- assignments geared to development in areas of affect, creativity, cognition, and research skills
- complex, in-depth assignments
- diverse enrichment that broadens learning
- variety in types of resources
- internships, mentorships and independent study where applicable

504/Special Education -

Modifications and accommodations must be aligned to the stated plan and uphold expectations of the plan lawfully. Every student requires a different set of accommodations based upon need. Examples specific to science practice include, but are not limited to:

- Group assignments
- Use of scribe
- Additional time and separate room for test taking
- Additional time for in-class assignments
- Computer with voice output, spelling and grammar checker
- Preferential Seating
- Assignments in electronic format
- Individualized instruction
- Use High Interest materials
- Modeling

- Provide Immediate Feedback
- Relate learning to real life situations when possible
- Use proximity changes about the room to keep students focused
- Offer a printed copy or copy of teacher notes
- Allow for spelling and grammar errors
- Offer individual help throughout the lesson
- Differentiated Instruction/Readings
- Speech to Text
- Modified Readings and Primary Source documents

Active Citizenship in the 21st Century (By the end of Grade 12)

Unit 2

Colonial New Jersey

Summary and Rationale

This unit will build upon the initial understanding of the peopling of New Jersey and Nutley while delving more deeply into New Jersey's colonial foundations. Students will gain an understanding of New Jersey's colonial settlement. The unit will focus on the role religious groups played in settling the colony, and look at the political liberties that were guaranteed by the colony. For the local focus, students will research and visit local historic homes with connections to colonial settlement, land use, and labor systems (including slavery).

Unit 3

Government and New Jersey

Summary and Rationale

This unit will focus on how New Jersey government policy impacts individuals and groups of citizens. Students will look at the New Jersey State Constitution and New Jersey slave codes to determine the evolving status of slavery in the state from the colonial era through full abolition of the institution. The unit will also look at the rise of political machines in the state and determine how political machines impacted the everyday lives of individuals. On a local level students will be able to look at the structure of Nutley's government in order to determine how local policy is made and how citizens can impact their local communities.

Enduring Understandings:	Essential Question(s):
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Civic and political institutions address social and political problems at the local, state, tribal, national, and/or international levels. • Constitutions, laws, treaties, and international agreements seek to maintain order at the national, regional, and international levels of governance. • Constitutions establish a system of government that has powers, responsibilities, and limits that can change over time. • Civic participation and deliberation are essential characteristics of individuals who support democracy and its principles. • Civic deliberation requires civic dispositions, attentiveness to multiple perspectives, and understanding diverse perspectives. 	How do citizens, civic ideals, and government institutions interact to balance the needs of individuals and the common good? How have economic, political, and cultural decisions promoted or prevented the growth of personal freedom, individual responsibility, equality, and respect for human dignity?

- Democratic principles concerning universal human rights, concepts of equality, and the commitment to human freedom are commonly expressed in fundamental documents, values, laws, and practices.
- Social and political systems throughout time have promoted and denied civic virtues and democratic principles.
- Personal interests and perspectives impact the application of civic virtues, democratic principles, constitutional rights, and universal human rights.
- Historical, contemporary, and emerging processes, rules, laws, and policies are modified as societies change in an effort to promote the common good and strive to protect human rights.
- Historical, contemporary, and emerging processes, rules, laws, and policies are modified as societies change in an effort to promote the common good and protecting citizens' rights.

An understanding of the role of an individual as a member of a state, the rights and responsibilities of citizens, how civic values are determined and practiced, and examples of how civic identity and values in one place are different in other places, is essential.

Unit Inquiry Question(s) → How has the constitutional framework in New Jersey changed over time?

How effective were the legislative reforms of the Progressive Era in controlling political corruption?

Objectives (SLO)

Students will know:

- Students will understand the basic structure of New Jersey’s government
- Students will examine how government policy impacts individuals across the state of New Jersey
- Students will examine the history of slavery in New Jersey
- Students will look at how political machines came to power and their impact on citizens

Modifications

Teachers can choose from any of the suggested modifications that follow based upon teaching style, instructional method and needs of individual students.

General Modifications:

- Focus on building relationships in the classroom.
- Control the stressors for the student and manage alternate pathways for completion of assignments.
- Provide feedback utilizing a growth mindset and praise what is done correctly based upon effort, attitude and strategy.
- Boost engagement with material by providing opportunities of differentiation, group work and alternative assignments/assessments where appropriate.

ELL:

- Provide additional wait time for student responses to questions to allow students the ability to undergo the process of translation between languages, composition of response and attempted response.
- Simplification of sentence structure and repetition of questions/sentences exactly as stated before trying to rephrase to allow ELL students to hear the sentence and try to comprehend it.
- Rephrase idioms and teach their meanings as when learning a new language, translations are often very literal. IE
“Take a stab at it.” Ensure students understand what is meant.
- Use directed reading activities. Ensure preview of text before assigned/read, provide pre-reading questions about the main idea and offer help utilizing key words.
- Allow the use of Google Translate where appropriate.

Gifted and Talented

Utilize differentiation in the areas of acceleration, enrichment, and grouping. Examples include, but are not limited to:

- interdisciplinary and problem-based assignments with planned scope and sequence
- advance, accelerated, or compacted content
- abstract and advanced higher-level thinking
- allowance for individual student interests
- assignments geared to development in areas of affect, creativity, cognition, and research skills
- complex, in-depth assignments
- diverse enrichment that broadens learning
- variety in types of resources

- internships, mentorships and independent study where applicable

504/Special Education -

Modifications and accommodations must be aligned to the stated plan and uphold expectations of the plan lawfully. Every student requires a different set of accommodations based upon need. Examples specific to science practice include, but are not limited to:

- Group assignments
- Use of scribe
- Additional time and separate room for test taking
- Additional time for in-class assignments
- Computer with voice output, spelling and grammar checker
- Preferential Seating
- Assignments in electronic format
- Individualized instruction
- Use High Interest materials
- Modeling
- Provide Immediate Feedback
- Relate learning to real life situations when possible
- Use proximity changes about the room to keep students focused
- Offer a printed copy or copy of teacher notes
- Allow for spelling and grammar errors
- Offer individual help throughout the lesson
- Differentiated Instruction/Readings
- Speech to Text
- Modified Readings and Primary Source documents

Unit 4

War and New Jersey

Summary and Rationale

This unit will provide students with a window into the participation of New Jersey and Nutley residents in major American conflicts over time. The unit will approach war in New Jersey by first considering the ways that individuals in the state and town participated and also the ways that the conflicts impacted the state and local community. The American Revolution will serve as the groundwork for this unit as both New Jersey and Nutley were at the center of the conflict. From here, students will consider similarities and differences between New Jersey and Nutley's participation in conflicts that might include the Civil War, World War I, World War II, Korean War, Vietnam War, and the Global War on Terror.

6.1.12.HistoryCA.
11.a

Evaluate the role of New Jersey (i.e., defense industries, Seabrook Farms, military installations, and Battleship New Jersey) and prominent New Jersey citizens (i.e., Albert Einstein) in World War II.

CCSS-ELA - Literacy in History/Social Sciences

CCSS.ELA-
LITERACY.RH.1
1-12.1

Cite specific textual evidence to support analysis of primary and secondary sources, connecting insights gained from specific details to an understanding of the text as a whole.

CCSS.ELA-
LITERACY.RH.1
1-12.2

Determine the central ideas or information of a primary or secondary source; provide an accurate summary that makes clear the relationships among the key details and ideas.

CCSS.ELA-
LITERACY.RH.1

Evaluate various explanations for actions or events and determine which explanation best accords with textual evidence, acknowledging where the text leaves matters uncertain.

1-12.3
CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.RH.1 1-12.4	Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, including analyzing how an author uses and refines the meaning of a key term over the course of a text (e.g., how Madison defines faction in Federalist No. 10).
CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.RH.1 1-12.5	Analyze in detail how a complex primary source is structured, including how key sentences, paragraphs, and larger portions of the text contribute to the whole.
CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.RH.1 1-12.6	Evaluate authors' differing points of view on the same historical event or issue by assessing the authors' claims, reasoning, and evidence.
CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.RH.1 1-12.7	Integrate and evaluate multiple sources of information presented in diverse formats and media (e.g., visually, quantitatively, as well as in words) in order to address a question or solve a problem.
CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.RH.1 1-12.8	Evaluate an author's premises, claims, and evidence by corroborating or challenging them with other information.
CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.RH.1 1-12.9	Integrate information from diverse sources, both primary and secondary, into a coherent understanding of an idea or event, noting discrepancies among sources.
CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.RH.1 1-12.10	By the end of grade 12, read and comprehend history/social studies texts in the grades 11-CCR text complexity band independently and proficiently.
CCSS-ELA - Writing
CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.W.11 -12.1.A	Introduce precise, knowledgeable claim(s), establish the significance of the claim(s), distinguish the claim(s) from alternate or opposing claims, and create an organization that logically sequences claim(s), counterclaims, reasons, and evidence.
CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.W.11 -12.1.B	Develop claim(s) and counterclaims fairly and thoroughly, supplying the most relevant evidence for each while pointing out the strengths and limitations of both in a manner that anticipates the audience's knowledge level, concerns, values, and possible biases.
CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.W.11 -12.1.C	Use words, phrases, and clauses as well as varied syntax to link the major sections of the text, create cohesion, and clarify the relationships between claim(s) and reasons, between reasons and evidence, and between claim(s) and counterclaims.
CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.W.11 -12.1.D	Establish and maintain a formal style and objective tone while attending to the norms and conventions of the discipline in which they are writing.
CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.W.11 -12.1.E	Provide a concluding statement or section that follows from and supports the argument presented.
